CATRINA CATALANO

PREMIER ORANGE COUNTY REAL ESTATE

Catrina Catalano, sales associate for Prudential California Realty's Newport Beach Branch, has been awarded the Leading Edge Society status.

The award recognizes the extraordinary achievement of placing her in the top 7% of Realtors in the nation from more then 62,000 Prudential sales professionals.

Catalano's professionalism has not gone unnoticed by her real estate clients, who are constantly impressed by her energy, intelligence and focus. Catalano believes her success comes from her ability to multitask, while focusing on the details of the transaction. Her clients realize they have found an agent that works hard on their behalf and conducts every transaction with the highest ethics and standard practice.

Catalano believes her success comes from her ability to multi-task, while focusing on the details of the transaction. Her clients realize they have found an agent that will return calls, works hard on their behalf and conducts every transaction with the highest ethics and standards of practice. She always taps into the resources around her, using the many platforms of business applications like technology, advertising and marketing. Handling things effectively and efficiently frees Catalano to work with her clients and to spend more time in the field where both the product and client are found. Essential to completing a real estate transaction is the skill to understand the complexities and the initiative to seek counsel when it's beneficial. Catalano specializes in the finest homes and neighborhoods in Orange County and has accommodated her clients in Los Angeles, Riverside and San Diego Counties.

Catalano believes in giving back to her community. A ten year thyroid cancer survivor, this year she was a team captain for the American Society's Relay for Life in Newport Beach.
